(which explains the handwriting!)

Dearest Lisa,

I am obliged to read you this c/o Longuesse because (comme un con!) I left my address book in Paris. Funny enough, since we were discussing the "project" only a few weeks ago and saying "of course, Lisa will never find the time"! We hang our heads in shame!

Anyway - Bravo! It is a very good start, full of ideas - and I'll try to contribute something during the holidays.

One comment already - I'm worried about Glasgow
as a publishing centre (will Willie Collier see?!).

However, I'm probably wrong.

P.S. I enclose a possible opening page. (I have no copy)

I also suggest a collective nom de plume - BUCK MESSÉ
